

Dear James Andrew,

Anera has always put people first. And we have learned that when people use their voice to tell their stories, they inspire others to take action. That is why I am so excited to share with you Anera's new social ambassador program. This is the perfect volunteer opportunity for creative, social media savvy people who want to use their platforms in support of refugees and vulnerable communities in Palestine, Lebanon and Jordan. If you know someone who might be interested, please share this opportunity with them!

A social ambassador is someone who is passionate about a mission and raises awareness of that mission through social media or other tools of communication. This person might choose to share Anera's stories on Instagram, host a fundraising event in their community, or advocate for Anera on their blog. These are just a few ways a social ambassador can use their platform to amplify Anera's work in the Middle East. Ambassadors will receive perks to help them reach their personal and professional goals, including free access to learning opportunities, the chance to network and learn from experts in the field, and so much more.

Visit our website to learn more or contact Michelle Rodriguez, Social Media Manager, at mrodriguez@anera.org.

Sincerely,

Liz Demarest
Vice President of Communications
