

DANA AUSTIN LUND

Dana Austin Lund of Ashburn, VA, died, peacefully, with members of his family present on January 16, 2023, at the age of 88. Dana was born and raised in Nashua NH, the son of Elmer T. and Annie G. Lund. He attended Nashua public schools and joined the Air Force after graduation, completing his tour in 1957. After graduation from Boston University, he became a federal employee; first working for the Air Force in Cheyenne, WY, and then at the Pentagon. He then transferred to the Agency for International Development and retired in 1988 as an Assistant Deputy Chief of Personnel. He received a variety of commendations for his federal service. While working at The State Department, he was a regular contributor to the Children's Hospital plasmapheresis program. After retirement he served as a hospice volunteer, an elder in his church and leader of a pastoral care team in Cumberland, MD. He enjoyed flying a small plane as a part of retirement fun. He moved back to Virginia in 2000, after a stroke, and moved to the Ashby Ponds retirement community in 2008.

Dana is survived by his wife of 66 years, his high school sweetheart, Patricia Lebel Lund, and five children: Laura Lund (Tim) of Sacramento, CA, Deborah Gregory (David) of Centreville, VA Susan Lund (Phil) of MD, Dayna (DeeDee) Elizabeth Reynolds (James) and Stephen Lund (Jacqueline) of Summerville, SC. He is also survived by his twin brother, David Lund (Susan), eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Ashby Ponds Benevolent Care Fund.

A Celebration of Life Service will be held at Ashby Ponds' Farmwell Hall on Monday, January 30, at 2 p.m.

Published by The Washington Post on Jan. 22, 2023.