

Arthur L. HowardDate of Death: 3/13/2015

Howard served in the US Navy during WWII. After his Honorable Discharge from the Navy in 1946, he went to work for the Department of Labor where he was a liaison between the department and the unions. He served two tours in Indonesia as an International Training Officer for the Department of Labor. He was transferred to the State Department where he served for 20 years as an FSO for AID. During that time he lived in Zambia, where he served as a mission director.