

Herbert D. Hamby

Date of Death: 8/17/2014

Retiring from his private accounting practice at age 50, Herb began a second career in US foreign-service so that he and his wife, Linda, could serve as self-supporting missionaries in Washington DC, Egypt, and the Philippines-which is where they met and fell in love with their daughter, Marnie, who they adopted when Herb was 63. Herb was passionate about investing in the next generation and encouraged others to do the same. Herb is survived by his wife Linda, his three daughters: Kelley Drake (and husband Jon), Janae Pierre, and Marnie Wagner (and husband TJ), and six grandchildren: Connor (and wife Lindsay), Paige, Luke, Lily, Tommy J, and Joseph.
