

Stephen J. PulaskiDate of Death: 12/10/2015

An original Peace Corps volunteer, he was assigned to the Dominican Republic from 1962 to 1964. He was an instructor/counselor and then director of education in the National Park Service from 1965 to 1968.

Mr. Pulaski joined USAID in 1968 and was posted to Saigon (now Ho Chi Minh City) as an assistant development officer and then as a relief and rehabilitation officer. He was transferred to Guatemala City in 1970 as executive officer of the USAID mission. He was later assigned to missions in El Salvador, Nepal, and Panama, and was seconded to the US Embassy in Rome.