Nov. 6 forum at GW: securing democratic elections around the world

All of our USAID friends are invited to a forum on USC's global election security initiative, "Election Cybersecurity as Public Diplomacy," on Monday, November 6th, at 12 noon, on line and in person at the Lindner Family Commons of the Elliott School of International Affairs of George Washington University, 1957 E Street NW, in Washington, DC.

Details and RSVP at https://publicdiplomacy.org/news_manager.php?page=33660

For those joining us in person at GW, a light lunch will be provided. The program will begin at noon; in-person participants are asked to be seated by 11:55 p.m.

This forum will be an update on USC's election security activities in Africa, Asia, Europe and North America. The forum is part of the monthly series of First Monday public diplomacy programs presented by the Public Diplomacy Council of America, the USC Annenberg Center on Communication Leadership and Policy, and the GWU Institute for Public Diplomacy and Global Communication.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope to see you on the 6th!

Best regards,
Adam

Adam Clayton Powell III
Executive Director, USC Election Cybersecurity Initiative, and Director, Annenberg Center Washington Programs
USC Annenberg Center on Communication Leadership and Policy
University of Southern California

email acpowell@usc.edu
mobile +1 703-848-5232
https://electionsecurity.usc.edu/
https://communicationleadership.usc.edu/africas-us-initiative/