University of Southern California Dec. 4 Africa forum: "Technology, Innovation and the Digital Economy"

All USAID alumni are invited to join us, in person or online, on Monday, December 4, at 9 a.m. EST, for "Africa's Future: Technology, Innovation and the Digital Economy" with speakers from around Africa, and in person in Washington DC, Vint Cerf, the "Father of the Internet," Google's Vice President and Chief Internet Evangelist.

This event is already in demand, and in-person space is expected to reach capacity well before Dec. 4, so you may want to RSVP well in advance. To attend either in person or online, please RSVP at https://africas-future-dec04.eventbrite.com

The forum will take place from 9 to 11 am EST at the USC Washington DC center, 1771 N Street NW. Light breakfast will be available starting at 8:30.

The next Africa forum, also at 9 am EST at the new USC DC building:
 - Monday, January 30: The Africa-US University Network

Africa-US forums are presented each month by
 - the African Centre for the Study of the U.S., University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg;
 - the Annenberg Center for Communication Leadership and Policy, University of Southern California;
 - the Center for African Studies, Howard University;
 - the Institute for African Studies, George Washington University; and
 - the Public Diplomacy Council of America.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope to see you on December 4th.

Regards,
Adam
