

DACOR has invited UAA members to attend their 3rd annual TransAtlantic dialogue on Thursday, Nov. 9 at 10:30. The first two were excellent and stimulating programs. The registration information for the fully virtual program is below. There is no registration fee.

Join DACOR for our next TransAtlantic Dialogue with the Foreign Commonwealth & Development Office Association, the Canadian Ambassadors Alumni Network, and the Canadian Foreign Service Alumni Forum, our counterparts in the United Kingdom and Canada. Each country co-host has selected a speaker for a robust, moderated discussion of the topic, "Can the West Win Over the Rest?" Against the backdrop of a fragmenting world, what should the western "liberal democracies" do in the face of increasingly tough competition to retain - and in some cases recover - influence in the Global South versus China and Russia? The program will be moderated by Ambassador Alexandra Bugailiskis from Canada. The panel will be comprised of Ambassador Guillermo E. Rishchynski, from Canada, Ambassador E. Anthony Wayne, from the US, and Sir Myles Wickstead, from the UK.

Registrations for this virtual program can be made at <https://mms.dacorbacon.org/Calendar/moreinfo.php?eventid=45711>. The event will take place on Thursday, November 9th from 10:30 – 11:45 am EST.
