

Syed Aamir Hussain obituary

Syed Aamir Hussain, senior budget analyst with the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), died May 12, 2024, in Glen Burnie, Maryland, at the age of 61. From 1992 to 2010, Mr. Hussain served as a Foreign Service national and financial specialist in Kuwait. He then worked as a contractor in the Bureau of the Comptroller and Global Financial Services in Charleston, North Carolina, as a financial management officer. He joined the Civil Service in 2018 in the Bureau of Budget and Planning as a senior budget analyst. His last assignment was at USAID. Mr. Hussain enjoyed mentoring, completing Microsoft Excel spreadsheets, and solving challenging problems. Mr. Hussain is survived by his wife, Ambreen Zehra; and three children, Sana Zehra, Syed Asad, and Zainab.

Reprinted from the DACOR Bulletin of September 2024