

Upcoming Job Fairs in Virginia and DC, March to May 2025

Events and Job Fairs in the City of Alexandria

- Thursday, March 27 – Transferable Skills Workshop: Thriving Beyond the Federal Workforce

“This workshop is designed to help former federal employees identify their transferable skills, build emotional resilience, and take proactive steps toward their next career opportunity.”

- Friday, April 18 – Back To Work Hiring Event

“Meet employers from various industries, explore job opportunities, and take the next step in your career. No pre-screenings will be conducted on-site—just bring your resume and be ready to connect.”

- Tuesday, April 22 – In-Person MJ Morgan Group Hiring Event

“Join us at the Workforce Development Center for MJ Morgan Group Hiring Event.”

Events and Jobs Fairs in Arlington County

- Saturday, March 22 – Preparing for Change: Transitioning from Federal to Private Sector

“Join the Arlington Employment Center for an engaging and informative workshop designed to help federal employees transition into private sector careers. Gain insights, strategies, and tools to navigate this career shift with confidence.”

- Wednesday, April 2 – Community Employment Day Career Fair and Roundtable

“The 25th Annual Diversity Employment Day Career Fair and Job Fair for DC and Virginia invites you to meet with major DC and Virginia employers, their recruiters, staffing managers, and HR Directors who are seeking to hire.”

- Saturday, April 5 – Leadership, Career, & Volunteer Expo

“The Leadership, Career, and Volunteer Expo is a free event that includes leadership development seminars, opportunities to connect with community leaders from the business, nonprofit, and local government sectors, and a job and volunteer fair. Free headshots will also be available.”

- Thursday, May 15 – Hire Vets Now Networking and Hiring Fair

“This event is a networking reception and career fair offering transitioning service members, military spouses and veterans the opportunity to connect with Virginia employers looking to hire military talent. Participating employers are offering career opportunities in IT, healthcare, logistics, manufacturing, defense, government, law enforcement and more.”

Events and Job Fairs in Fairfax County

- Sunday, March 23 – Empower & Elevate Employment Resource Fair

“Job-seekers, please join Faith Communities in Action and Fairfax County Government at this event if you are looking for employment, need resources and tips for finding employment, are interested in becoming an entrepreneur, or are seeking assistance building your resume.”

- Tuesday, April 1 – Talent Tuesday: Conversation with a Recruiter

“Connect with a recruiting manager to review resume tips, interviewing techniques, and best practices on how to represent yourself when applying to jobs. Hosted by one of our partners, this event is open to all jobseekers.”

Events and Job Fairs in the District of Columbia

- Tuesday, March 25 – Smart Resume: Tips, Tools and Techniques and How to Write a Professional Cover Letter

“This workshop offers best practices and valuable tips for creating resumes and cover letters to achieve success when applying for jobs. You’ll learn how to create effective and professional resumes and cover letters that stand out with employers.”

- Friday, March 28 – DC Department of Employment Services: Federal Webinar Series on DOES Programs and Unemployment Insurance

“The District of Columbia's Department of Employment Services will host a series of webinars on DOES Programs and Unemployment Insurance for the benefit of former Federal employees impacted by recent reductions in force.”

- Thursday, May 15 – The DC Department of Human Resources' Spring Into a New Career Fair