Who's going

DEADLINE EXTENDED!! Do you want to get on stage and tell your story? We will have 10 5-min spots for storytellers. Please sign up here by Thursday May 8th to be considered! Please reach out to us (specialevents@rpcvw.org) if you want to tell your story but need a little help. *Make sure to ALSO RSVP below to the event in order to attend even if you signed up to tell your story.

RPCV/W and NOVA RPCV invite you to join us for an evening of International Development Professionals and other Federal RPCV Storytelling at the Writer's Center (metro accessible!) in Bethesda, Maryland Saturday evening May 17, 2025!

This event is about honoring International Development Professionals, and other Federal RPCVs impacted by recent changes to the federal government, giving them the voices they were denied. Join us to hear their stories and enjoy being in community.

*Note, this is intended to be a safe space for creative expression and as such we will not be recording nor will we have media presence. Please also review our community guidelines here.

Program:

6:00 - 6:30 PM: Potluck Reception (please bring a snack/appetizer or drink [alcoholic or non] to share, we will provide supplies)

6:30 - 8:00 PM: Storytelling

8:00: Happy Hour at World of Beers

We hope you will join us to honor the international development and Federal RPCV community!

The venue has limited space, please RSVP up until May 17th to attend using the button below or email specialevents@rpcvw.org secure your spot!!
