

D. Bruce Kellogg Obituary

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of D. Bruce Kellogg of Washington, DC on July 23, 2025. He was born in Boston, MA, on July 20, 1943, and grew up in New England. He attended Boston University where he earned his undergraduate degree in History and a Graduate degree in Secondary Education. An adventurous spirit, he joined the Peace Corps and served in Afghanistan where he met his wife GulGhutai. Bruce was committed to public service, and spent his career working for the United Seamen's Service, the US

Agency for International Development (USAID), and the Corporation for National and Community Service. In addition to Afghanistan, he worked in Iran, Germany, Guam, Japan, Thailand, Sudan, and Korea. Bruce and GulGhutai ultimately settled in Washington, DC where they raised their three children: Sarah, Makai, and Alan. He was an avid reader, traveler, gardener, and stamp collector. He is survived by his wife, children, and granddaughter.

A memorial service will take place at the Friends Meeting of Washington on September 28, 2025, at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you make donations in his name to the PBS Foundation. The donation form requires an email address. Please feel free to use your own email if you do not have ours.

PBS Foundation: <https://foundation.pbs.org/donation/> To plant trees in memory, please visit the Sympathy Store.

Published by The Washington Post on Aug. 5, 2025.