

Impact of AID being shuttered. Bloomberg, 28 Nov 2025

Trump's decision to shutter the US Agency for International Development, which had led the global fight against infectious disease, has already resulted in more than 600,000 deaths, most of them children, according to modeling done by epidemiologist Brooke Nichols at Boston University. And it's likely to get worse, according to a Bloomberg analysis of spending on global health, food aid, international disaster assistance, refugees and development.