

Last year, Devex exclusively reported on the Trump administration's order to stop work on U.S. foreign aid. That decision marked a historic turning point for USAID and set in motion changes we closely tracked throughout 2025.

From Jan. 19 to Jan. 24, Devex will publish a week of insider coverage examining what has changed since the stop-work order took effect and where U.S. foreign aid stands today. This reporting draws on expert insight, in-depth analysis, and on-the-ground context you will not find elsewhere.

What to expect:

- News articles
- Video explainers
- Downloadable reports
- The podcast: This week in global development
- A special Saturday Pro Insider newsletter
- A Pro Briefing unpacking the current state of U.S. foreign aid

If you work in global development, this coverage is essential.

Sign up for Devex Newswire to follow the reporting and become a Devex Pro member for full access to exclusive briefings, special newsletters, and insider analysis.

Best,

Anna
