

Career Series: A Conversation on the Future of U.S. Diplomacy Thursday, March 5, 9:30 am - 12 pm

DACOR and Grounded Idealist are excited to hold a conversation on the “Future of U.S. Diplomacy” featuring Jim Richardson, Chief of Staff and Chief Operating Officer to former Secretary of State, Mike Pompeo; Tamanna Salikuddin, Senior Advisor at Cambridge Global Associates with a focus on Indo-Pacific security; and Jeremy Shapiro, Director of Research and the Director of the U.S. Program at the European Council on Foreign Relations. The panel will be moderated by Sepideh Keyvanshad, Senior Advisor at Cambridge Global Advisors and Kyle Dietrich, Founder of Grounded Idealist, and will discuss where they see foreign affairs and foreign policy heading and why these institutions were vulnerable in last year’s reductions-in-force. You’ll also hear what current and aspiring foreign policy practitioners can do to strengthen the field and to help the general public better understand the importance of this work.

This event will also feature resume reviews, coaching, and other career transition services, so be sure to bring a hard copy of your resume for review.

Reserve your space now! The event will be hybrid with in-person and virtual attendance available. The resume reviews, coaching, etc., will only be available to those who attend in-person.

Panelist bios and the program's schedule are available through the button below.

Register Now →